

PASSPoRT to Washington University
Pathways to Advanced Scientific Skills through Postdoctoral Research Training

Welcome to the application for the PASSPoRT event for Washington University in St. Louis!

Happening on October 12th and 13th, this two-day virtual event offers prospective postdocs an opportunity to connect with potential mentors and expand their research network. Applicants should be advanced PhD students (post-qualifying exams), recent PhD graduates, or early-stage postdocs. There is no citizenship requirement.

As part of the application, you will be asked to select which faculty member(s) you would like to have an informational conversation with during the preview event. Please know that, while we cannot guarantee any faculty meetings, we will do our best to honor your requests given the constraints of availability and demand.

Please submit your application by 12:00 pm Central Time on September 18th. You will be notified of your application status by October 2nd. Should you have any questions, please email Dr. Peter Myers (petersmyers@wustl.edu).
